How We Use Club Members Information

The categories of club members information that we collect, process, hold and share include:

- Membership contact information (name, date of birth, address, emergency contacts)
- Medical information (relevant to judo activities)
- Special categories of data (gender, age)
- Competition data (collected and shared with the British Judo Association, to advise and guide members on the next steps in qualification or grading)

Why We Collect and Use This Information

We use member information data to:

- Enable the development of a comprehensive picture of the member to assist with progression in the sport
- Inform members about development of the sport and the club
- Enable members to progress onto higher level competitions
- Enable the British Judo Association to track and improve Judo for its members

The Lawful Basis On Which We Process This Information

We process this information under the membership contract you have entered into with Newbury Judo Club or in relation to the steps taken to enter into that contract.

Where information of a non-sensitive nature is processed and is therefore in the club's legitimate interests i.e. membership of the club.

Where sensitive data is processed by means of consent, with appropriate safeguards and is in the legitimate interests of the club, or is in your vital interests.

Collecting This Information

Whilst the majority of information you provide to us is mandatory, some of it is provided to us on a voluntary basis. In order to comply with data protection legislation, we will inform you whether you are required to provide certain membership information to us or if you have a choice in this.

Storing This Information

We hold your data for the duration of your membership with the club.

Where we have invoiced for items or collected payments, the club will retain your information for 7 years.

Who We Share This Information With

We routinely share this information with:

- The British Judo Association
- Sport England
- Other club's where competitions are held

Why We Share Membership Information

The reason for sharing your data is to highlight and encourage competitors to advance in the sport, or to apply for further funding to ensure the sports or clubs longevity.

We do not share information about members with anyone without consent unless the law and our policies allow us to do so.

It is a pre-requisite of the sport that all club members register with the British Judo Association, hence we will supply information to them, for this and insurance purposes.

Requesting Access to Your Personal Data

Under data protection legislation, you have the right to request access to information about you that we hold.

To make a request for your personal information, contact Christine Delahunty.

You also have the right to:

- Object to processing of personal data that is likely to cause, or is causing, damage or distress
- Prevent processing for the purpose of direct marketing
- Object to decisions being taken by automated means
- In certain circumstances, have inaccurate personal data rectified, blocked, erased or destroyed
- Claim compensation for damages caused by a breach of the Data Protection regulations

If you have a concern about the way we are collecting or using your personal data, we ask that you raise your concern with us in the first instance. Alternatively, you can contact the Information Commissioner's Office at <https://ico.org.uk/make-a-complaint/>
